

Oh yes, and here's a photo of the Phog, or Spectral Phog, the band from Bloomington that had me and Doug Hodges in it. There's that Hagstrom bass. Guys in the picture L. to R.: Bruce Hosner, Larry Hosner, Marc Bristol, Darwin Leathers, Doug Hodges.

The photo was taken in Portage, where we were auditioning for a gig to open for the Jefferson Airplane. But the gig never happened, the club closed before the date was supposed to happen. Doug and I both saw the Jefferson Airplane at a Rock festival at MSU about 4 years later. They sucked. Too many drugs perhaps, again.
